

HORTICULTURAL SCIENCES DEPARTMENT

Chairs: C. Gunter (Chair, Horticultural Sciences) and L. House (Interim Chair, Environmental Horticulture)

Graduate Coordinators: C. Vallejos (Horticultural Sciences) and G. Hansen (Environmental Horticulture)

The Horticultural Sciences Department Graduate Program at the University of Florida has a wide array of opportunities for graduate study.

The Horticultural Sciences (HOS) graduate program is administered jointly by the Environmental Horticulture (HSE) and Horticultural Sciences (HS) departments and offers graduate programs leading to the Master of Science (thesis or nonthesis options) and the Doctor of Philosophy degrees. Members of the program's Graduate Faculty include department resident faculty and faculty at the University of Florida Research and Education Centers located throughout Florida.

The Horticultural Sciences Department offers a combination bachelor's/master's degree program. Please contact the graduate coordinator for information.

For admission to the HOS graduate program, apply to either the HS or HSE departments, depending on your career/research interest. Details about the program and how to apply are listed on their website:
