AFS 6303 Development Administration 3 Credits

Grading Scheme: Letter Grade

This course for Master of Sustainable Development Practice (MDP) students and others addresses specific tools, processes and concepts linked to the praxis of Development Administration that MDP graduates should be familiar with before embarking on their careers in sustainable development.

AFS 6305 Development Theory and Practice Intro 3 Credits

Grading Scheme: Letter Grade

Introducing the basic core competencies and practical skills required of a development practitioner. It differs from other development courses at UF by uniquely focusing on the inter-relationship between management, health, natural and social sciences in African development contexts and by emphasizing both theory and practice.

AFS 6306 Gender and Empowerment in Development 3 Credits

Grading Scheme: Letter Grade

Examines the concepts, and associated practices, of gender equity, women's empowerment and men's involvement. Gender equity is both a goal of development and means for attaining wider societal goals. Critically examines the assumptions underlying development practice and the challenges in integrating gender considerations into development work. Previous coursework or experience in development issues or gender-related topics is recommended.

AFS 6307 Foundations of Economics for Sustainable Development 3 Credits

Grading Scheme: Letter Grade

Providing students with limited economics background with a foundation in development economics, with attention devoted to sustainable development. Students learn about the major theoretical debates within the discipline, the most current research topics and apply their knowledge to the comparative analysis of development in Africa and Latin America.

Prerequisite: None.

AFS 6346 Conservation and Development Practicum 3 Credits

Grading Scheme: Letter Grade

Gain competence in applied, professional work in development practice through a guided analysis of the information generated during Master of Sustainable Development Practice field practicums, and in the interpretation of results, linking findings across disciplines and scales.
